The Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) document will help you choose a health plan. The SBC shows you how you and the plan would share the cost for covered health care services. NOTE: Information about the cost of this plan (called the premium) will be provided separately, if applicable. This is only a summary. For more information about your coverage, or to get a copy of the complete terms of coverage, go to www.nyccbf.org or call 1-800-529-FUND (3863) or 1-212-366-7373. For general definitions of common terms, such as allowed amount, balance billing, coinsurance, copayment, deductible, provider, or other underlined terms, see the Glossary. You can view the Glossary at https://www.healthcare.gov/sbc-glossary/ or call the Fund Office to request a copy.

Important Questions	Answers	Why This Matters:

		Network Provider (You will pay the least)	Out-of-Network Provider (You will pay the most)
If you visit a health care provider's office or clinic	Primary care visit to treat an injury or illness	Not Covered	Not Covered	There is no coverage for this type of medical event except for reimbursement of certain expenses related to these medical events. You must obtain benefits from other coverage or pay 100% of these expenses, even in-network. The amount of $1,836 will be allocated to your health reimbursement account (HRA) at the start of the calendar year. You may apply for a distribution from your account for direct reimbursement of eligible "medical care expenses" not covered by your primary insurance. "Medical care expenses" mean expenses incurred by you or your covered dependents for medical care as defined in Internal Revenue Code (Code) §§ 105 and 213(d). A complete list of eligible medical care expenses is outlined in IRS publication 502. Reimbursable expenses include copayments, coinsurance, or deductibles paid under another health plan, post-tax premiums for prescription drug coverage, prescription drug costs, costs for certain over-the-counter drugs and medicines, costs for certain non-covered dental/optical expenses, and costs for menstrual care products. You (and your dependents) must also be enrolled in a group health plan that meets the Affordable Care Act's (ACA) minimum value standard to be eligible for reimbursement. See the Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC) from your other group health plan to determine if it meets this standard. No reimbursement is allowed for individual coverage purchased through a Marketplace established by the ACA or Medicare.

Your Rights to Continue Coverage: There is an agency that can help if you want to continue your coverage after it ends. The contact information for this agency is: the U.S. Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration 1-866-444-EBSA (3272) or www.dol.gov/ebsa/healthreform. Other coverage options may be available to you too, including buying individual insurance coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace. For more information about the Marketplace, visit www.HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596.

Your Grievance and Appeals Rights: There are agencies that can help if you have a complaint against your plan for a denial of a claim. This complaint is called a grievance or appeal. For more information about your rights, look at the explanation of benefits you will receive for that medical claim. Your SPD also provides complete information on how to submit a claim, appeal, or a grievance for any reason to your plan. For more information about your rights, this notice, or assistance, contact: the Fund Office at 395 Hudson Street, New York, NY 10014; or Department of Labor's Employee Benefits Security Administration, 1-866-444-EBSA (3272), www.dol.gov/ebsa/healthreform. Additionally, a consumer assistance program can help you file your appeal. Contact: Community Service Society of New York, Community Health Advocates, 105 East 22nd Street, 8th Floor, New York, NY 10010, (888) 614-5400, http://www.communityhealthadvocates.org.

About these Coverage Examples:

This is not a cost estimator. Treatments shown are just examples of how this plan might cover medical care. Your actual costs will be different depending on the actual care you receive, the prices your providers charge, and many other factors. Focus on the cost sharing amounts (deductibles, copayments and coinsurance) and excluded services under the plan. Use this information to compare the portion of costs you might pay under different health plans. Please note these coverage examples are based on self-only coverage.
